

Please complete the narrative responses for your JANE MORRISON MEMORIAL FILM FUND GRANT application.

Please provide clear, specific responses to each of the following project description statements, addressed sequentially and numbered. Responses should not exceed one page.

1. Concisely explain the educational opportunity you propose to pursue.

2. Explain how this educational opportunity is relevant to your filmmaking career.

3. Give an overview of the workshop, seminar, formal course or other means of training you are interested in. Include information about the 'program' (such as a brochure or a website address). Please state the cost of the 'program' including expected additional expenses (if pertinent). If the cost is more than the requested amount, please explain how you intend to cover the difference.
